Priya Dhoot, age 3 -

My granddaughter loved this book. She found it very funny and wanted it read again.

This latest book of Julia Donaldson does not disappoint. The illustrations are first class, anything Helen Oxenbury pens is awesome.

Abigail Collings, age 4

I liked this book - we all kept on saying "I'm the Giant Jumper and I'm as scary as can be!" but you don't find out who he is until the end.

I really liked this book because it was very funny when the Giant Jumper said all the things he was going to do and they were all rhyming but you couldn't see who he was until the end.

My favourite part was when he said he would sting them like a bee!

The pictures of the animals were very good to look at and I liked it when the animals got bigger and bigger through the book.

My little sister, my big sister and me all loved this book!

Message from mum - This book is a fabulous combination of the rhyming appeal of Julia Donaldson and the charming illustrations of Helen Oxenbury. My girls all loved it (aged 6, 4 and 2) and it had great repeatability in our house!

Asrah Khan, age 5

My new favourite book, I liked looking at the beautiful pictures and reading the rhyming word with my mummy. I liked how all of Rabbit's friends tried to help him get into his house.

I really enjoyed reading the book. My favourite part was when the big elephant got scared and hugged the tree, I laughed out loudly. I also liked when the Giant Jumperee scared all the big animals. I liked how all of rabbit's friend tried to help him get in to his house, this was kind and caring. I enjoyed looking at the pictures, they helped me understand the story better. There was lots of rhyming words and I started reading along with mummy because I recognised some words. I liked this book so much it is my favourite bed time story. I will give it a 10 out of 10.

Abidah & Amatullah Khatun, age 18 months & 6 years

We were expecting the Giant Jumperee to be big and scary like the Gruffalo but were pleasantly surprised!

'The Giant Jumperee' is a delightful story for babies and younger children. Rabbit is going home when a loud voice shouts 'I'm the giant Jumperee and I'm scary as can be!' One by one Rabbit's friends try to confront the Giant Jumperee but each time they are scared by the loud voice. Finally the smallest animal, Mommy Frog solves the mystery!

Abidah, 18 months old loved this story as her new found interests are animals and so this book was perfect. Amatullah who is six read this book easily and enjoyed the ending very much. This is another brilliant book from Julia Donaldson. Helen Oxenbury's soft colours and cute illustrations complement this story completely.

Elissa Watkin, age 4

Another great story from the amazing children's author Julia Donaldson.

The book is well animated and the story plays out to a funny ending. Great for younger readers.

We enjoyed reading this book together and Elissa was excited to find out who the Giant Jumperee was and why he was scaring the animals.

The pictures are lovely and describe the story well along with the easy way that the words flow as you would expect from a Julia Donaldson book.

This book is great for a bed time read and encourages young readers to have a go at reading along.

George Haine, age 4

*This is a story about The Giant Jumperee who teases all the animals and tries to scare them, but Mummy Frog counts to 3 to sort him out! This is a happy book and I like the pictures.

Lyra, age 5

I liked it as the animal at the end was funny! The bear was funny as he was so scared when mum went in the hole. I loved the pictures of the animals faces. It is a very good book for 5 year olds. Who is the Giant Jumperee? We guessed an elephant, a giraffe and a porcupine! Kept us wondering until the end. We laughed when we found out what it was!

Lyra said 'I liked it because the animal at the end was very funny! The bear was funny as he was so scared when mum went in the hole. I loved the pictures of the animals faces. I think it is a very good book for 5 year olds.
