I really like this book. It's so good you can't put it down. I like Lexie because she's kind and she wants to help the people who feel as if they don't fit in. I would say this book is for mostly for girls aged over 9 as there are some sad parts, but boys might like it too. If you like stories by Jacqueline Wilson, you will love this book.

Seren Daly, age 10

'Love from Lexie' is a beautiful book and is heart wrenching at times. I liked the mystery of her Mum and found it made me want to read more. I think children 9+ would love it, the ideas and sadness play a huge part in the plot and make it more exiting. The band was fantastic and I loved the letters and think she was right to let go of believing. I think all children should read this book because it could teach us all something no matter who you are. Cathy Cassidy has really outdone herself here, it is fantastic. I can't wait to see if she writes a sequel .

Zoe Basson, age 10

This book is an enchanting mix of romance, music and finding where you belong. It's a band for misfits showing that you don't have to be the best looking or most popular to be in a band. It has elements of sadness that grips your hart as well as yes, romance. Can a bad boy be turned good in the hands of the right girl? Well why don't you find out?
