

LoveReading4kids Reader reviews of
The Shakespeare Timeline Wallbook
By Christopher Lloyd, Dr Nick Walton, Patrick Skipworth
and Illustrated by Andy Forshaw

Below are the complete reviews, written by the LoveReading4kids members.

Bella Rix-Clancy, age 9

Lots and lots of information in this fantastic book.

I really like this book. I didn't even know Shakespear had written so many plays.

The timeline has all the plays on and they have all been broken down so that I could know what they were about. They is pictures and writings and things like settings all in little boxes on each play. There is also a timeline on the bottom too.

This book has so much information that I couldn't read it all in one go. I think I will look at this book lots.

Alexander Bisland, age 11

This book is all about Shakespeare from Richard III to Henry VII. It includes plays such as Hamlet, Macbeth and Romeo and Juliet. I recommend it to 11+ students as it has some complicated words in it but younger children might find useful facts and information that they can also use for projects and schoolwork.