

Lovereading4kids Reader reviews of The Magical Mix-Up Written by Zach King

Below are the complete reviews, written by the Lovereading4kids members.

Daniel Bisland, age 10

We would love another book in this series.

Zach has gone from Zero to Hero. He has loads of friends but there is one thing he's missing; his magic. Hogan, the new kid, is plotting against Rachel. Zach needs to find his powers to STOP Hogan before it is too late. Hogan wants to ruin Rachel's reputation (after book 1 she became popular at school), so he be-friends her enemy Tricia so that together they can be the most popular kids at school.

Does Zach stop Hogan?

Does Zach get a super power?

Read the book to find out! We give it 5. We recommend it to 8+ magic fans! We would love another book in this series. www.bisland.co.uk

Harsh Budhdeo, age 11

Definitely aced the first one - just as exciting and leaves you wanting more of Zach King.

I really enjoyed the book the magical mix- up because it's filled with cliffhangers, weird and wonderful moments and unexpected moments. I really like the parts were Zach used his relatives/family's objects to do magic. My favourite character was Hogan because he was described very well and he was good at things only people could dream of. The author created fantastic images of scenes by using good vocabulary. Overall, I really enjoyed every single moment of the book and I would hope another book comes out. After reading the first book, I thought this couldn't get better but it has. I would recommend this book to children 6+.

Charlotte Walker, Adult

Fast paced, action packed and magical.

Zack King has returned!

*In this latest book Zach has to struggle with losing his magical snapbacks after the escapades of My Magical Life. In this latest installation Zach and his friends must work out what Hogan (The new guy from Australia) is up to at the school dance. With the help of his family, friends and a zap of magic, will Zach be able to save Rachel, and reveal Hogan's true motives.*

A great book that dives straight in to the action, with awesome illustrations and comic strips to tell the latest adventures of Zach King.

Seren Daly, age 11

This book is all about Zach King and is the second book in the series. I loved it and can recommend it to all.

Zach King is a boy who's lost his powers. Following the last book his magic items are destroyed and his magic is gone, but some strange things do still happen. Zach makes a plan to ask Rachel out to the school dance but new boy Hogan gets there before him. He is determined to win Rachel over. He overhears a conversation between Hogan and mean girl Tricia, he knows he has to thwart her plot before it's too late with help from his 3 cousins, little sister Sophie and best friend Aaron he manages to get things done. This book is really good and is even better since I have read the other book in this series. I can recommend this to 5+.

Ross O'Gorman, age 11

Imaginative, creative and so much fun, in this second book about Zach, he must recover his magical powers to stop a kid from Australia, who is up to no good at the big school dance.

In the second book in this exciting series, Zach thinks life is going well. He is about to ask popular girl Rachel to the school dance when disaster strikes. A new kid arrives from Australia and invites her to the dance before Zach. He is suspicious of this new kid and he finds out that he may be leading her into a trap, to stop her becoming class President. With his sister's help can Zach once again save the day? Brilliant illustrations bring the story to life and I cannot wait for the next book to see what is in store for Zach.