

LoveReading4kids Reader reviews of Grrrrr! by Rob Biddulph

Sam and Jack (Emma), age 5 and 3, (Mum)

Both of my sons (aged 5 and 3) absolutely loved GRRRRR! They thought the illustrations were hilarious and had great fun guessing what Boris had hidden up his jumper. My eldest son particularly understood the message of the story and thought it was 'really good that he had lots of friends to help him when the other bear was nasty'. My youngest son loved roaring along and practising to see if he could roar the loudest. It linked really well with Sports' Day and we had lots of giggles playing along.

Rob Anderson, age 5

A highly entertaining, rhyming picture book. The illustrations are bright and bold and add to the humour of the story.

We both liked this amusing picture book. My son was able to read a fair bit of it himself.

Rob said, "I liked it best when they all gave a big GRRRRRRRR" (At this point Mummy was deafened.)

It is a great book to read aloud and to initiate a conversation about friendships and relationships in general.

Rachel and Abi Zinkin, age 8 and 5

A fantastic book with a really great rhyme and adorable pictures of the different animals in the wood. We want to read it again and again.

Rachel and Abi both said how much they liked the rhyme - the rhythm of the book flowed well and they liked how it made them relax and yet at the same time be really interested to hear what happened next. Abi was particularly enamoured with the happy ending. She liked the message behind the story and found it easy to relate to. Rachel loved the detail in the pictures, particularly the scores, and the different animals all helping out. We thought this book was really great. A perfect picture book read.

Alexander Reiff, age 3

We loved Blown Away so had high expectations. We weren't disappointed.

The illustrations are great - so much to look at and notice alongside the story - and the drawings of each animal gives them such character. The behaviour of Boris gave Alex lots to talk about! The actual message in the story means this book will have lasting value too. Rob Biddulph's books are very popular in our household!

Emily Welbourn, age 4

A wonderful story about how Fred the Bear lost his Grrrrrr and found some friends. Funny, sweet and heart-warming.... look out for the rabbits who find love throughout the book!

My daughter and I love this book! It's a funny, sweet and heart-warming story about Fred the bear who loses his Grrrrrr! but finds some friends. The characters are warm and engaging, with endearing little quirks and the whole book is beautifully illustrated. We have already read this so many times and I'm sure it will continue to be a firm favourite for years to come. Look out for the bunnies who fall in love through the pages of the book!
