

LoveReading4kids Reader reviews of Kitchen Disco by Clare Foges & Al Murphy

Below are the complete reviews, written by LoveReading4kids members.

Amatullah Khatun, Age 5, and Mum

A funky vibrant book that will make your child want to discover which fruits are in your kitchen.

When the lights go out at night the kitchen comes to life as the fruit dance throughout the night. Banana is the DJ, the grapes dance the Conga and all the other fruit join in with the fun.

A funky vibrant book that will make your child want to discover which fruits are in your kitchen. Brilliant colourful illustrations complement the lovely rhyming text. The snappy sentences held my daughter's attention throughout the book. She also loved the glittery double spread near the end of the book.

The story is written in such a way that younger children might actually believe there's a disco in their kitchen at night!

Ruby Laverty, Age 5, and her Granny

We shook it like a mango,

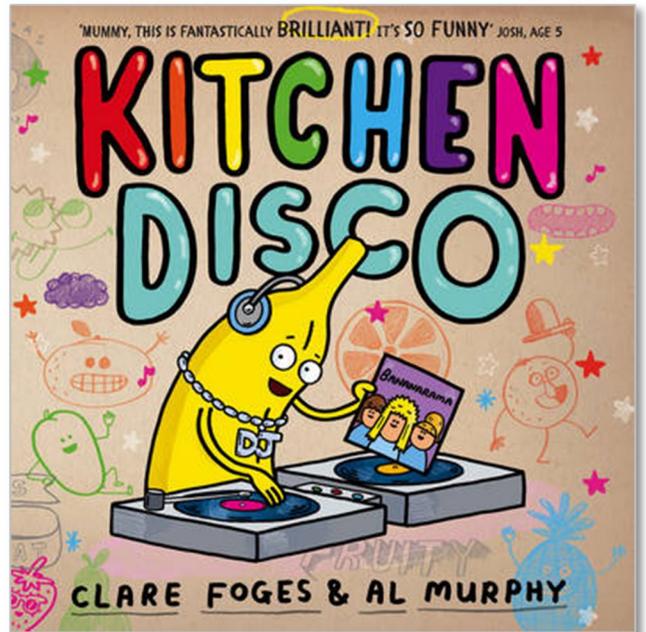

We partied like a pear.

We wiggled like an apple

And danced like we don't care!

We loved this book. Ruby thought the pictures of the fruit and their antics were hilarious - particularly the coconut diving into the washing up to have a bubble bath and make the others laugh.

A lovely, lively rhyming text with plenty to entertain adults too.

I particularly liked the reference to Bananarama.

If I'm being picky, the one thing I didn't like was the use of the word 'span' as past tense of the verb spin. That made me shudder, but maybe wouldn't bother everyone. It wasn't even necessary for the rhyme, so I feel that should be corrected.

Rob, Age 5, and Mum

A colourful, rhyming picture book with a brilliant, quirky humour.

We both enjoyed this delightful picture book. The colourful illustrations are bold and full of humour. My son thought it was great fun and tried to copy some of the interesting moves of the bananas, tangerines and lemons. However, when asked which was his favourite fruit, without hesitation he said 'the apples' because they looked 'cool' and were 'bouncy'.

Robyn, Age 6, Sabrina, Age 3, and Mum Tracey

Robyn loves this book. The story is really funny as are the illustrations. She's read it to herself several times already. Sabrina loves it too, I think it's the fun rhyme!

It's a fun book to read aloud and I'm sure we'll be re-reading it many times.

Thank you for letting us review this book.

Eleanor, Age 3, and Mum Tanya

This book is by far our favorite book we've received from Lovereading. It's such a fun book and we're currently reading it at least six times a day.

Eleanor loves it so much she's even learnt the song that features in it, and asks every night if we can fill the sink with bubbles so the fruit can have a bath when she goes to bed.

Bright pictures, lots going on, fun rhymes and a funky song. It is a massive hit in our house and myself and Eleanor would definitely recommend this book to everybody. Just get ready to move your hips, and shake your pips while reading it and have fun!

Huxley Gleb, Age 4, and Mum

A great fun book full of colourful pictures and funny characters. Easy to follow story. The pictures bring the story to life. Good for a boy or a girl.

This is a great fun book that is full of very colourful pictures and with funny characters. The story is easy to follow. The pictures really bring the characters and the story to life. This book would suit a boy or a girl. Would love to see many other books like this by the same author.

Vinnie Johnson, Age 3 (and a half), and Mum

A very funny book about all the food in the kitchen having a lot of fun and a fruit disco. It was very fun and original... great illustrations and very catchy.

This is a very fun book. When all is dark in the house the banana DJ and all the other fruit all have the best time dancing and moving and breaking into moves and generally having the best time EVER.

I think it really helps kids know that what the different fruits are and what fun they can have with fruit.

It is beautiful illustrated and I really like the rhymes.

I've never read a book like it. The last few pages with all the glitter are all particularly amazing.

Loved it.

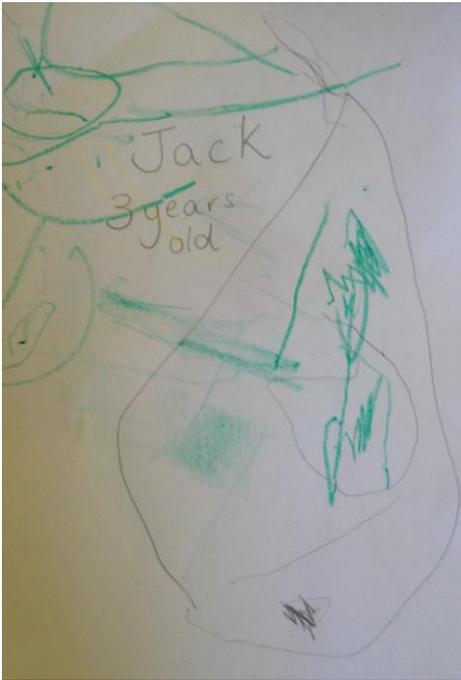

Read it again mummy.

Sam, Age 5, Jack, Age 3, and Mum Emma

We thought Kitchen Disco was extremely funny. Sam loved the DJ banana who he thought was 'really cool' and Jack liked the 'naughty lemons because they are cheeky'. We all loved the bright colours and fun rhymes, and had great fun wriggling our hips and shaking our pips! We would definitely recommend this book to others.

We have also done some pictures of our favourite fruits. Thank you so much for letting us read and review this book. :)

Emily, age 4

A fun, exciting book about fruit that comes to life and parties after dark!

Kitchen Disco is a really fun, exciting book that reads like a song, complete with a funky, catchy chorus and bright, lively illustrations. It makes my four year old get up and dance!

Victoria Emerson & James McNichol, age 5

Brilliant.

A wonderful, funky, rhythmical story about fruit in the kitchen having a disco every night.

The artwork is bold and bright and makes the book fun to read.

We'd definitely recommend it.