

LoveReading4kids Reader reviews of Sir Lilypad by Anna Kemp & Illustrated by Sara Ogilvie

Below are the complete reviews, written by LoveReading4kids members.

Robyn Chorley, age 6

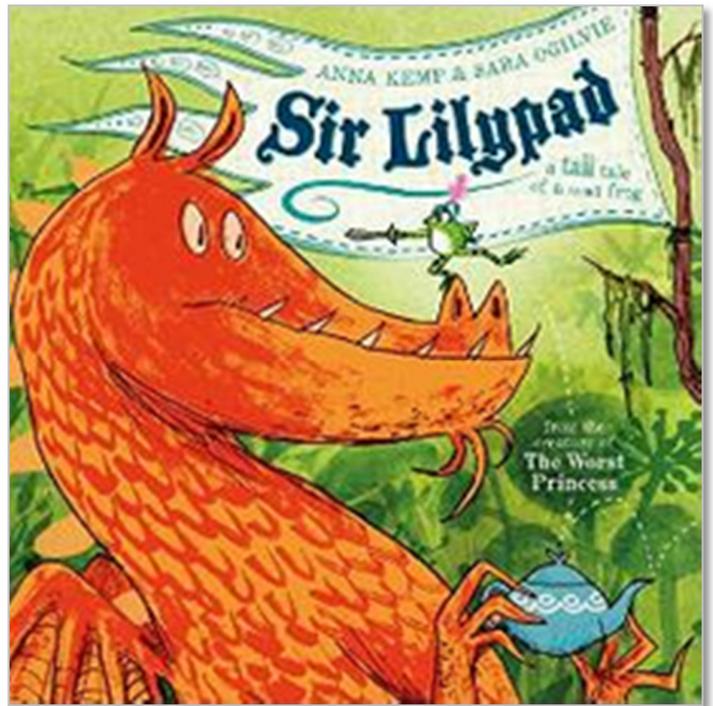

Really funny book, lovely story and fun illustrations.

Robyn found this book very funny - she's enjoyed reading it lots to her younger sister. The illustrations are very well done and help tell the story.

James McNichol, age 5

An exciting tale about a feisty frog.

A wonderful rhyming tale with brilliant illustrations that really add to the book. We would highly recommend reading it.

Emily Welbourn, age 4

A funny, sweet, engaging book about a small frog with big ambitions!

This is a wonderfully funny, sweet, engaging book about a small frog with aspirations to be a bold knight! Sir Lilypad the Brave is an endearing character, perfect for small people who want to grow up and do exciting things. My four year old loved him for his bravery and sense of fun and adventure, and she was doubly delighted when who should pop up but Princess Sue and her dragon friend, old favourites of ours from 'The Worst Princess'. I can see Sir Lilypad being a firm favourite for years to come, one to read and enjoy again and again.

Huxley Glen Age 4

A fun little story about a little frog. It was easy to read and full of funny characters. The illustrations were very colourful. I would like to read more books about Sir Lilypad.

This was a great little book all about a frog. The book was easy to read and was full of funny characters. The illustrations were very colourful and helped to bring the characters and story to life. I would like to read other books that featured the character of this book Sir Lilypad. I would recommend this book to both boys and girls.
