

LoveReading Reader reviews of Black Dove, White Raven by Elizabeth Wein

Below are the complete reviews, written by LoveReading members.

Amisha McCrystal, age 13

This is a brilliant novel full of wonderful adventures and sad stories about two young children and their parents.

The children's mothers have very strange, but exciting careers. They are wing-walkers. This means they perform acts on the wings of a moving plane. After a very serious accident where one of the mothers is killed, the other three decide to move to Ethiopia.

Will their happiness last forever or will something shatter their happiness? Will one mistake change their family forever?

This was quite a long story, but once you get into the excitement of their adventures it is an easy and enjoyable read.

I would recommend this book to 13+

