Phoebe Carter, age 6

I loved it so much, it made me play the game. When we played the game, I couldn't think of anything to draw, but that was okay. I just drew anything.

I LOVED IT!!!!

Holden Morris, age 6

Frida and Bear both love to draw, and so do I!

I love Anthony Browne's illustrations and this book has shown me new ideas how to draw something from nothing, sheets of blank A4 paper are no longer blank for long in our house! The idea of making something out of nothing has made my Mum, Dad and my imaginations sore, as any good book should, and we have been engaged and inspired from the moment it arrived. Not the usual Anthony Browne story, but a real play together experience – and not a Gorilla in sight!

James McNichol, age 5

A wonderful book for a child just learning to read.

A wonderful book for a child just learning to read. My five year old loved it and read it over and over again, cover to cover.
