Sabrina Chorley, age 4

This was a fabulously funny book. Daddy enjoyed reading it as much as Sabrina enjoyed listening to it.

This was a lovely story. Funny and engaging with a nice moral about the importance of friendship. The illustrations are beautiful and really help to tell the story.

Alex, age 4 and William, age 7

Colourful pictures and the dragons faces were kind. We enjoyed this book which had a lovely message of anyone can be friends.

George Haine, age 4

I like this book. Dragons eat knights but the dragon didn't know he was a knight because he's taken off his shield and his helmet and his sword – that's what knights wear. At the end they are all friends. That's interesting.
