

LoveReading4kids Reader reviews of Murder Most Unladylike by Robin Stevens

Below are the complete reviews, written by LoveReading4kids members.

Emily Pitfield, age 10

A fantastic and gripping murder mystery story which will prove tricky to put down, especially as the story draws to a close.

I really enjoyed murder most unladylike because of the exciting plot and the unexpected ending. There was lots of detail throughout the story, especially at the end where it became nearly impossible to put the book down. I also found it fun to try and guess who the murder was myself using the clues in the book. I am now looking forward to reading the rest of the series.

Sophia Curtis, age 9

I think this book is amazing and any girl 9+ would like it too.

Hazel Wongs and Daisy Wells make a detective club. Their science teacher has been murdered and it's up to Daisy and Hazel to solve the crime. My favourite character is Daisy because she is always brave and got over things quickly.

Cajsa, age 10

This book was ideal for my age. Even though it is a murder story it wasn't at all gory! This book is a great read.

I read this book with great interest. When Hazel found the body I was surprised how eager Daisy was to investigate who did it. I liked the way that Hazel had her own opinion on the whole situation but didn't dare tell Daisy. When it sounded like they had found the culprit they would find out something that took the story a whole different way. The pace varied often in the story. Parts were very exciting but some events took them nowhere. This book was ideal for my age. Even though it is a murder story it wasn't at all gory! I would give this book 9/10 as this book is a great read.

Elsbeth Paterson, age 11

I really loved this mysterious book called “Murder Most Unladylike”, and give it 5 out of 5. This book is aimed at older readers and as suggested by the title there is a murder, in fact there’s more than one.

I really loved this mysterious book called “Murder Most Unladylike”, and give it 5 out of 5. This book is aimed at older readers and as suggested by the title there is a murder, in fact there’s more than one! The story is set in a girl’s boarding school, where two pupils decide to set up a detective agency and get more than they bargained for. The book has written chapters with no pictures except from a very cool illustration of the map of the boarding school at the front of the book.

It is quite a serious book that may make you shiver with thrill. It is still a fun read with lots of action in the story. For my first murder mystery it was very enjoyable.

I would really recommend “Murder Most Unladylike” to all children aged 10 and over.

Faghra Saleem, age 12

‘Murder Most Unladylike’ is a thrilling roller coaster ride of a read with twists at every turn till it all comes down to a dramatic conclusion on who the mystery murderer was.

Murder Most Unladylike is full of mystery, suspense and lots of twists and turns. It’s an enjoyable book for those aged 9+ and who love a good thriller.

This book was about two young girls who were eager for a good mystery to solve. Unfortunately, the only case they had every solved was the case of Lavinia's missing tie. However, this all changes when Hazel discovers their dead science teachers body...

I really enjoyed this book because of the constant hints and clues the author kept giving. Also it was filled with suspense and kept me wanting to know more throughout the book.

I rate this book a 4 out of 5 and I cannot wait to read the next book from this series.

Holly Wilkins, age 11

This is one of my favourite books ever, you always want to read on and never stop!

Two girls called Daisy Wells and Hazel Wong set up a detective agency at their school (Deepdean for Girls) but have not found an exciting case until Hazel finds their science teacher's dead body. The two girls have to solve the mystery before the police find the answer. Will they find out who was the murderer and send them to jail? Or will they be the next victims on the murderer's list? I will definitely read all the books in this series. I would give this book 5 out of 5 stars. READ THIS BOOK!!!!!!!!!!!!

Isabel, age 8

A very exciting read.

This book is full of mystery and people acting suspicious. I like Daisy and Hazel they are great at sleuthing!

Charlotte Cassidy, age 10

A crime-riddled murder mystery that I couldn't put down and kept me guessing until the end. Brilliant book for girls aged 9+.

'Murder Most Unladylike' is a brilliant book set in Deepdean School for girls. It is about two girls, Daisy Wells, (your stereotypical English dorm girl) and Hazel Wong (a Chinese Watson to Daisy's Sherlock Holmes) who set up a detective agency at their school, and then discover a body in the gym. When they go to tell someone about it, it disappears. They try to solve the mystery of the murder, and the disappearance.

They find lots of clues along the way including a diary, a golden earring, and a resignation letter. Who is involved? Who did the murder? How did they cover up the crime scene? And how did they get away unnoticed?

There is much more to Deepdean School than meets the eye! Can Daisy and Hazel solve it all?

Bella Perez, age 10

I loved Murder Most Unladylike. It puts you in a lot of suspense and has a very surprising end. It's about two girls, Hazel Wong and Daisy Wells, who set off to discover who murdered Miss Bell, but then Miss Tennyson is murdered and they discover more than they set out for. My favourite character is Hazel Wong because she is from Hong-Kong. The book has very few pictures and is for advanced readers.

Sabrina, age 11

This brilliant book is a mixture of adventure, humour and mystery all-in-one; these are probably my three favourite genres so of course I absolutely loved this book! It's gripping, exciting and has many tense moments which keep you on tenterhooks throughout the book.

I think it's really nice that Daisy Wells and Hazel Wong (the two main characters) are still at school because most detective books have adults solving the crime – in this book, the police would never have caught the criminal without the girls' help. Personally, my favourite out of the two of them is Hazel, as she doesn't really want to be involved in that particular case, however she ends up teaching Daisy something! Also, Hazel is much more concerned about other people's feelings than her friend is.

Overall, I think this book is excellent and I recommend it to anyone who wants a thrilling detective story.

Izzie Wood

*This book is about a girl who finds her science teacher dead in the gym but a few minutes later when she comes back with her friend the body had gone! I really enjoyed this book it was great.

Edgar Perez

It is AMAZING! The best part was the ending...

Chloe, age 11

Daisy and Hazel have formed a detective society but they haven't had any real cases yet. All that changes when Hazel discovers a dead body. This book is epic!

Daisy Wells and Hazel Wong are best friends and they have formed a Detective Society but they haven't had any cases yet, well not till Hazel discovers the dead body of their science Mistress Miss Bell. They don't just have to solve the murder they also have to prove there ever was a murder. Can they solve it and can they stay friends? Find out in this action packed, thrilling murder story. I enjoyed reading this book. In fact I loved it. It was epic! It was really exciting and I got to know the characters well. I didn't want to put it down because I cared about what happened, especially to Hazel, and I wanted to find out what happened next. I would recommend this book. It sounds a bit gruesome but it's a great read and not hard to follow.